JCF REAL ESTATE AWARDED BY THE ST. CHARLES CHAMBER OF COMMERCE FOR THE CORPORATE RESERVE DEVELOPMENT

(SCHAUMBURG, IL) – JCF Real Estate is pleased to announce that the firm has received the 2010 Community Development Award distributed by the St. Charles Chamber of Commerce. Steven Chrastka, Vice President of JCF Real Estate, accepted the award at a dinner last month on behalf of the Schaumburg-based full-service real estate firm.

The Community Development Award was created in 1989 by the Chamber to recognize significant investment efforts in the business community by a member of the St. Charles Chamber. The award is given for new construction, extensive remodeling or renovation projects. JCF Real Estate received the award for the firm's 50-acre, mixed-use development located at 300 Cardinal Drive in St. Charles.

“We are honored to accept this award for The Corporate Reserve,” said Chrastka. “It is a significant development for the community and will continue as such while the area continues to grow over the next several decades.”

Last fall JCF Real Estate announced a new lease at the development as well as the completion of approximately $10.0 million in site improvements. Two 15,000 square foot office buildings for the small to mid-size user are now complete and ready for immediate occupancy. Construction on a third building is expected to commence in 2011 with completion slated for 2012. Once fully developed, The Corporate Reserve of St. Charles will feature more than 500,000 square feet of office, restaurant, retail, and hotel space in a strategic Western Suburban location. It will provide businesses with a broad selection of space options from 1,000 square foot offices to 200,000 square foot corporate headquarters and build-to-suits.
