JCF REAL ESTATE HIRES NEW ASSISTANT PROPERTY MANAGER

(Schaumburg, Ill.) – JCF Real Estate is pleased to announce that Darin P. Reed has joined the full-service real estate firm as Assistant Property Manager.

In his new role with JCF Real Estate, Reed will be responsible for a variety of property management assignments across several product types including industrial, office, retail, residential, land and multifamily. Additionally, he will work as a member of the firm’s receivership staff which currently services more than 75 assignments and has successfully built value in underperforming assets since 1993.

“We are pleased to welcome Darin to the property management team,” said Michael Goebig, Vice President for JCF Real Estate and the director of the firm’s property and asset management team. “We currently manage more than 75 receivership assignments and with that number on the rise, the decision to make a new hire was necessary. Darin’s attention to detail and exceptional customer service skills make him a valuable asset to our team and our clients.”

Reed was previously employed as an assistant community manager with Sherman Residential. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Aurora University in Aurora, Illinois. Reed currently resides in Aurora, Illinois.
