FITZMAURICE AND JCF REAL ESTATE ANNOUNCE TEN NEW RECEIVERSHIPS

(SCHAUMBURG, IL) – JCF Real Estate, through John J. Fitzmaurice the firm’s founder and principal, has been named the court-appointed receiver or property manager on 10 additional properties throughout the Chicagoland region this past month. With nearly 75 properties handled by JCF within their current assignment group, the firm has handled receiverships and management assignments across all property types in the entire Chicago metropolitan region.

The ten properties appointed to Fitzmaurice and his firm, are located in Chicago, Aurora, Geneva, Woodstock and Oak Forest, Illinois. The portfolio represents product from across all commercial and residential sectors including land, office, industrial, retail, and single and multi-family housing. As receiver or manager, JCF Real Estate will establish property management procedures that will stabilize, protect and preserve the asset including supervision and maintenance of the properties, collection of rents and fees, and supervision of third-party contracts and utilities. The firm will also oversee lease management, budgeting, banking and reporting as well as the ultimate disposition of the property.

Since 1993, JCF Real Estate, through John Fitzmaurice, has been entrusted as a court-appointed receiver on hundreds of office, industrial, retail, multi-family and land assets. Fitzmaurice and his dedicated receivership staff possess a comprehensive understanding of the receivership process and have worked with dozens of law firms, lenders, and banks.
