JCF REAL ESTATE HIRES NEW PROPERTY MANAGER

(Schaumburg, Ill.) – JCF Real Estate is pleased to announce that Ryan Segal has joined the full-service real estate firm as Assistant Property Manager.

Segal, who maintains more than five years of successful property management experience, will be responsible for a variety of property management assignments across several product types. Additionally, he will work as a member of the firm’s receivership staff which currently services more than 75 assignments and has successfully built value in underperforming assets since 1993.

“Ryan is a strategic new addition to our experienced team of property and asset managers,” said Michael Goebig, Vice President for JCF Real Estate. “We currently manage more than 75 receivership assignments and expect that number to continue to multiply throughout the next several years. Ryan’s expertise and professionalism will complement our team and enable us to further enhance the high level of service that our clients have come to expect.”

Segal was previously employed as an assistant property manager with the SS Management Group. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from DePaul University in Chicago, Illinois. Segal currently resides in Chicago.
